

FEAST OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

PRESIDER: Let us lift up our prayers to the Holy Trinity as we pray:

READER: Holy Trinity, one God, all things come from you and return to you. Help us seek you in union with our brothers and sisters. We pray...TO YOU BE GLORY FOREVER.

Holy Trinity, one God, you are the beginning and end of all that is. Help us share your life and your love forever. We pray...TO YOU BE GLORY FOREVER.

Your glory encompasses all. Give all fathers a greater sense of wonder and awe for the mystery of Your Fatherhood and bless them with all they need to be good fathers. We pray...TO YOU BE GLORY FOREVER.

Holy God, you made each of us in Your image. We are all diverse, beautiful, and beloved. This Pride Month we lift up the LGBTQ+ community as a call to justice, a witness to Your inclusive and boundless love. We pray...TO YOU BE GLORY FOREVER.

God of Love, we ask for an abundance of blessings for all the Oblates of St. Benedict of Benet Hill Monastery as they live out the rule of Benedict in their day-to-day lives in union with this community. We pray...TO YOU BE GLORY FOREVER.

May the grace of this Jubilee Year reawaken in us, as Pilgrims of Hope, the call to spread the joy and peace of Christ on the Earth, and to vanquish the powers of Evil forever. We pray...TO YOU BE GLORY FOREVER.

May the joy of the Holy Spirit be present in all the celebrations of life, graduations, weddings, births and flowering gardens. We pray...TO YOU BE GLORY FOREVER.

For the sick, especially Sr. Elizabeth Cogan, and others in our assembly. We pray...TO YOU BE GLORY FOREVER.

PRESIDER: Let us pray to the Father, through the Son, in the power of the Holy Spirit, that our prayers are heard and answered.
